It is unneecessary to enumerate the articles of which our stock is composed; suffice it to say that in our rooms may be found every thing pertaining to men's wear, and furnishing goods of the most recent style and in great variety.

Our Custom Department,

GRAY'S INVALUABLE OINTMENT

I DEEM it proper to inform the public that my own name and label has been very extensively counterfeited. I have, therefore, adopted the label of my son, William F. Gray, of Nashville, Tennessee; and all the Ointment I have made since the 1st of January, 1852, bears his name, written by me in a large and plain hand. My son has sent, by an Agent, a large supply of the Ointment into the Western part of North Carolina, and has lately made a shipment to Wilmington of several thousand boxes. In the course of some few months every County in the State will be furnished with an adequate supply of the Ointment. My son is the only person to whom I have imparted a perfect knowledge of preparing the Ointment, and the Ointment made by him will be genuine—all without his label and signature should be avoided as spurious.

$25 REWARD.

I WILL give the above reward of $25 for the apprehension and confinement in any Jail in the State or delivery to me on my Contract on the North Carolina Rail Road ten miles west of Raleigh, of a negro woman called Delpha. She is a tall black woman with prominent cheek bones, large eyes, a fine set of large teeth. I am inclined to the belief that she is harbored by a cousin of hers, living at Mrs. Malone's Raleigh, or by a gang of free negroes living near Morrisville Post office, 12 miles west of Raleigh on Crabtree.

Gunn's Domestic Medicine,

Or Poor Man's Friend: in the hours of affliction, pain and sickness, a safe and reliable guide.

THIS book points out, in plain language, free from doctors' terms, the Diseases of Men, Women, and Children, and the latest and most improved means used in their cure, and is intended expressly for the benefit of families It also contains descriptions of the Medical Roots and Herbs of the United States, and how they are to be used in the cure of diseases. It is arranged on a new and simple plan, by which the practice of Medicine is reduced to principles of common sense.

This invaluable book has passed through many editions; it has now been revised and improved in every respect, and enlarged to nearly double its former size; and contains nine hundred octavo pages.

It does not propose to dispense with physicians in severe cases, but it does propose to save thousands and tens of thousands annually, by putting the means of cure into every man's hands, and of saving many valuable lives (which is of far more importance) by instructing individuals how to check disease in its be, innings, before it has acquired too much strength to resist and overcome.

THE cost of Insurance on the mutual plan is but a small sum, compared with a joint stock Company. The Company is entirely free from debt; have made no assessments, and have a very large amount in cash and good bonds, and is therefore confidently recommended to the public.

HUNTING ADVENTURES IN THE FOR-ESTS OF LE MORVAN.

Le Morvan is a charming and picturesque region of the old province of Burgundy, in the district of France, a region of wood and water, of wild scenery, of rapid streams and mountain torrents, of deep forests and of fertile valleys, of rocky heights and of green pastures, of ancient castles and of modern villages, of ruined towns and of populous cities, of historical recollections and of romantic traditions, of wild beasts and of domestic animals, of savage solitudes and of smiling cultivation, of primitive customs and of modern civilization, of the rude habits of the past and of the refined luxuries of the present. It is an extensive country, and possesses the most delightful climate of any in France. There is little excitement, and the temperature generally is mild and genial. The winters are short, and the summers not oppressively hot. The spring and autumn are the most delightful seasons of the year. Then the country is covered with a rich carpet of verdure, and innumerable perfumed flowers, of every variety of color and shape, spring up in the valleys and on the hill-sides, and even in the deepest recesses of the forests. The trees, however, is the most striking feature in the landscape. Here are to be found, in the greatest luxuriance, the oak, the elm, the beech, the chestnut, the walnut, the ash, the linden, the sycamore, the poplar, the willow, the birch, the alder, the hazel, the hawthorn, the wild cherry, the wild pear, the wild apple, the service-tree, the maple, the holly, the juniper, the yew, the box, the laburnum, the mountain-ash, the wild rose, the honeysuckle, the clematis, the ivy, the vine, the blackberry, the raspberry, the gooseberry, the currant, the whortleberry, the bramble, the brier, the furze, the broom, the heath, the fern, the moss, the lichen—every variety of tree, shrub, plant, and flower that grows in the temperate zone. The forests are full of game, and within their recesses the wild boar, the wolf, the fox, the badger, the wild cat, the marten, the polecat, the weasel, the stoat, the hare, the rabbit, the squirrel, the hedgehog, the mole, the field-mouse, the water-rat, and many other species of the animal creation, find a safe retreat and a secure asylum. The streams and rivers abound with fish, and the lakes and ponds are covered with wild-fowl. The plains are rich in pasturage, and are covered with numerous flocks and herds. The hills are clothed with vineyards, and produce a general supply of excellent wine. The villages are numerous, and within their limits are to be found all the different descriptions of rural industry and ingenuity. The people are simple, honest, and hospitable, and retain in their primitive customs and their unaffected manners many of the characteristics of the golden age. Such is a brief and imperfect description of the country in which the following adventures took place.

THE STANDARD.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 2, 1853.

THE COURSE OF TRADE, &c.

A friend, writing us from the up-country, asks if the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad is "worth trying and trusting to bring on our necessary supplies," and if it is "prompt, careful, impartial, and sufficiently moderate in its charges." He adds: "Also, what inducements Raleigh can now and will in future hold out for the sellers of produce and buyers of their year's provisions of groceries, &c. Railroads cannot help us if we do not use them; and Wilmington, Norfolk, and Petersburg must compete for our up-country trade. The highest and most honorable bidder will get it."

The Raleigh and Gaston Road has been relaid with heavy iron and thoroughly repaired—the connecting link between it and the Seaboard and Roanoke Road will soon be completed—the Central Road will be ready for the cars, we presume, in the course of the next twelve months; and Wilmington, Norfolk, Petersburg, and Charleston will thus be thrown open to the people of the interior of the State, or rather to a large portion of them. The day is not distant, therefore, when speculation as to results will give place to results themselves—when we shall have practice in the place of theory. Our sympathies are all with the seaports of our own State. We are anxious that Wilmington should share largely in the up-country trade, and we believe her enterprising merchants and tradesmen will spare no efforts to command this trade. But the competition, from the very condition of things, will be warm and active. There is no cheaper market in the whole country than Wilmington, especially for groceries and farmer's yearly supplies. Look over the prices current of the different towns, and you will be convinced of this. Her trade is rapidly increasing; and her capacity for trade has, we believe, been underrated even among our own people. As soon as a communication with the interior shall have been effected Wilmington will cease, of course, to a great extent to purchase her supplies—such as hay, apples, butter, onions, flour, potatoes—from the Northern and Eastern States, and will come to depend for these things upon our own farmers and planters; and the same remark will apply to Newbern and Beaufort when the Road from Goldsborough to the latter place shall have been constructed. But the people of the interior will trade where they can get most for their products and at the same time purchase their supplies at the cheapest rates—due allowance being made, of course, for the distance to be overcome and the charges for transportation.

We take pleasure in giving a satisfactory reply to our Correspondent in relation to the Raleigh and Gaston Road. That Road can now be "tried" and "trusted." It is now in as good a condition as any Road in the Southern country, and well managed. We do not know what reduction in charges is contemplated; but the Road can certainly carry at cheaper rates than heretofore.

So far as Raleigh is concerned we may say that up to this time business has been driven to the top-notch—that is, we have just as many retail stores as can be sustained—a number of shops, but no wholesale houses. The people here are not wanting in a spirit of enterprise. The place is rapidly improving. The sound of the saw and the hammer can be heard in all directions—fair prices are paid for hands, and all who will work may. Our merchants and business men must wake up, however, and prepare for the future. They may be able to command a considerable up-country trade; but, in order to do so, the wholesale business must be commenced, as we doubt not it will be when the Central Road shall have been completed.

The bulk of travel from the interior will doubtless take the Norfolk route; and many of the merchants of this section and further West will, in all probability, avail themselves, in purchasing their dry goods and fancy articles, of the connexion between that port and New York. We speak of facts as they are and of strong probabilities.

The course of trade, however, is not so important, after all, as the existence of trade itself. We may not be able to direct it as we could wish, but we can make it and give to it an indefinite augmentation. Let us do this—it will take care of itself thereafter; and though the stream may not run by every door and through all our market towns, yet sooner or later all interests, all localities and sections will be refreshed and fertilized by its influences and results.

☞ The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: "The Senate did not go into executive session to-day (the 28th) and Mr. Badger's nomination appears to be in a bad way. The objections which are urged against it in the Senate may be gathered from the Union of this morning, to-wit: non-residence in the circuit from which he is nominated, and old federalism."

☞ Mr. Miller is out with another Card in the Register, in which he makes good his charges against Mr. Rayner. The "gentleman from Hertford" is "catching it." The last North State Whig—Mr. Stanly's organ—has an article about Mr. Rayner, which is any thing but soft and affectionate.

☞ Greely of the Tribune says of Senator Badger—what an English lawyer said of Lord Eldon—that "he is a very great lawyer, a very small politician, and no philosopher." But Greely is a philosopher—he lives on bran bread, cold water, and isms—all of which George Edmund eschews.

☞ We find the following item floating through our exchanges: "Gov. Foote, of Mississipi, in a recent letter, asserts his constitutional right to fill the vacancy in the Mississippi Senatorial representation; but he is in doubt whether he, in view of recent developments, will exercise that right."

☞ The Potomac was covered a day or two since with a thick coat of ice, thus rendering the passage of mail steamers impracticable. We are consequently somewhat behind with the latest intelligence.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The following capital Resolutions were adopted, among others, by the Democrats of the 8th Senatorial District in Convention on the 6th of last month:

Resolved, That the President elect—a son of this district—one born and bred in our midst, and known and loved by us all, had by his virtues, by his patriotism, by his devotion to the best interests of his country, secured so firm a hold upon the affections of the people of his State and of the country that "treachery could not weaken it nor perfidy steal it away."

Resolved, That in the unprecedented vote by which Gen. Pierce has been exalted to the Presidency, those vile calumniators, who, for months were solely occupied in attempts to destroy his good name, discover the estimation in which their services have been held by a grateful people.

Resolved, That we recommend to the opposition in all coming elections to save their honor if they can't anything else."

That advice to the opposition is excellent. We hope that, hereafter, they will at least look to their honor and save that, for they can make sure of nothing else.

At another Democratic Convention in New Hampshire the following Resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the additions made to our National domain, under d mocratic administrations, instead of realizing the fears and dangerous predictions of its opposers, have served to strengthen and cement the Union, fully justifying the wisdom of that policy, which has from motives of sound consideration, under terms just and liberal to the parties, extended the area of our domain, thus extending the happy influences resulting from our genial and unequalled institutions."

These are the old sentiments of the Republican party; and they are cherished, we are rejoiced to see, with as much ardor as ever among the granite hills of New Hampshire. How they rebuke and put to the blush those Southern Whigs who opposed Texas, and who are unwilling to extend "the area of freedom," even though domestic slavery should be extended with it!

VIRGINIA.

Virginia appears to be going more fully than ever into Internal Improvements. The last Petersburg News contains the following items from Richmond:

"Amongst the bills reported to-day in the House of Delegates, were the following:—A bill to increase the capital stock of the Clarksburg and Wheeling Turnpike Company—a bill making a further appropriation of $75,000 to the South Western Turnpike road—and a bill to increase the capital stock of the Potomac Bridge Company.

The following bills were passed to-day:—A bill authorizing a loan of one million of dollars, by the State, to the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad Company—ayes 91, noes 39.

A bill increasing the capital stock of the Luray and Front-Royal Turnpike Company $60,000, in which the State subscribes 3-5ths—ayes 93, noes 30.

A Senate bill, incorporating the Richmond and York River Railroad Company and authorizing a capital stock of $500,000 on the 3-5ths principle—ayes 77, noes 50.

A bill appropriating a further sum of $100,000 to McAdamize the North-Western Road, was taken up and read a third time. Pending the question of its passage, the House adjourned to Monday.

The bill authorising a subscription of $800,000, as the capital stock of the Norfolk and Petersburg Railroad Company, of which subscription the State takes 3-5ths, was passed at the evening session of Friday."

And on Friday, as we learn from the Enquirer, the House of Delegates passed, by a very large majority, the bill making a loan of $600,000 to the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company.

Bishopric Vacant. By the arrival of the Baltic, we learn that Levi-Silliman Ives, D. D. LL. D., Ex-Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, made a public abjuration of Protestantism, at Rome, on Sunday the 26th of December. 1852. Dr. Ives has for several years preached what is known as "high Church doctrines." He has now become simply a lay member of the Catholic Church. Pio Nino is said to have administered the sacrament to him in person. And it has created much noise and talk from both Catholic and Protestant sojourners in the olden "City of Seven Hills." Mrs. Ives and Mrs. Dickens, of North Carolina, we understand, are travelling in Europe with Dr. Ives. Doctors Hawkes and Mason, and the Rev. Mr. Davis are spoken of in connection with the vacant Bishopric. There are many things in heaven and earth more strange than this conversion and we hope a spirit of peace and kindness will still be preserved throughout all congregations.

STATE BONDS.

The Banker's Circular, New York, noticing the fact that the late Assembly of this State has provided for the issue of State bonds with coupons attached, says: "This will facilitate the negotiation of the State bonds in the New York market, as well as give them a higher value."

The New York Mercantile Journal and Financial Recorder says:

"The State of North Carolina has announced for sale by tender $500,000 of her Bonds bearing six per cent. interest, and having thirty years to run. The security, we need scarcely say, is of a high class, and will command the attention of capitalists. A description of the Bonds will be found in our advertising columns."

Cattle Train. A train of thirty-nine cars of live stock—600 in all—passed through Binghampton, N. Y., on Friday night last, en route for New York, and was followed by an extra train of thirty cars—ten filled with live cattle and twenty with merchandise.

The Turpentine Business. The Fayetteville Observer states that the population of Cumberland county has increased about 1,000 since the first of the present month—about 300 whites and 700 slaves having arrived there from other parts of the State to engage in the turpentine business.

☞ One of the Correspondents of the Baltimore Sun, speaking of the Cabinet and appointments of Gen. Pierce, says "the China mission belongs to California, of course."

☞ The Rev. John A. Gretter died in Greensborough on the 21st instant. Mr. Gretter was a Minister of the Presbyterian Church, and was distinguished for his zeal, eloquence, and piety.

Charleston and Nashville. The Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad is now completed, and cars running on it, to within three miles of the Tennessee River. Passengers are landed in Charleston in less than three days from Nashville, the whole distance, with the exception of the three miles above alluded to, by Railroad or Steamboat.

Large Crop. The Pennsylvania Agricultural Society, at its annual meeting, at Harrisburg, a few days ago, awarded the premium on corn to Mr. Geo. Walker, of Susquehanna county—160 bushels to the acre.

RAILROAD TO THE COAL MINES.

We learn from the Carolinian that books are to be opened in Fayetteville to-day for the purpose of receiving subscriptions of stock to a Railroad from that place to the Coal fields of Deep River. The Carolinian urges upon the people of Fayetteville in earnest tones the importance of this work. It says:

"What will this work accomplish? It will bring our town in immediate connexion with mines of the most valuable coal in the country. Do not take our word for this. Read the extracts from Prof. Emmon's Report published in another column of this paper. Prof. Emmons, be it recollected, is not a mere stroller through the country who happened to pass the Coal Fields; nor is he the employee of any of the mining companies, or biased by interest in any way to give opinions in relation to this coal calculated to give a fictitious value to the coal lands. Professor Emmons is a distinguished scientific man of high reputation and attainments, who has been employed by the Governor to survey the State, and to give a true account of its capabilities and resources. His opinion, therefore, by every consideration, will command respect and authority. And what does he say? Speaking of the bituminous coal, he says it "is scarcely equalled for fineness and excellency in this country." He goes on then to enumerate the uses to which it is specially adapted, bearing the most satisfactory testimony in the details of the truth of his general statement. His evidence on the subject of the quantity of this coal is equally satisfactory. Should not Fayetteville take speedy and energetic action on this subject? Shall we permit this rich mine of wealth to be almost at our doors without making a mighty effort to reach it and secure its benefits? We understand that the value of real estate in this town is about half a million of dollars. We believe it would be a safe calculation to say that the prosperity would be enhanced fifty per cent. in value, or $250,000 by the projected work. If, therefore, the Railroad should never pay any dividend whatever, but should merely be able to sustain itself, it would be for the interest of the town to subscribe liberally to it. But we believe that it will be good stock. The quantity of freights would be in all probability commensurate with the utmost capacity of the Road to transport. Furthermore, this Road would in our opinion, become the basis of a system of Railroads centering at Fayetteville and adding incalculably to its trade.

We say then to our fellow-citizens, let not the golden opportunity slip. Help yourselves and Fortune will help you."

SUPREME COURT.

The following opinions have been delivered since our last:

By Nash, Ch. J., in Baker vs. Halstead, from Cumberland, affirming the judgment. Also, in State vs. Melton and Bird, from Stanly, declaring that there is no error in the Court below. Also, in Bordeaux vs. Montague, in Equity, from New Hanover, dismissing the bill with costs.

By Battle, J., in Allen vs. Allen, from New Hanover, awarding a venire de novo. Also, in Williamson vs. Jordan, in Equity, from Person, dismissing the bill with costs. Also, in Holmes vs. Johnston, from Sampson; reversed and remanded. Also, in Caffey vs. Kelly, in Equity, from Guilford, directing a reference.

By Pearson, J., in Sowell vs. Barrett, in Equity, from Moore, dismissing the bill with costs. Also, in Rooks vs. Moore, from New Hanover, affirming the judgment. Also, in Mason vs. Hearne, in Equity, from Stanly, directing a reference. Also, in State vs. Weaver, directing a venire de novo.

Levi Silliman Ives, the Bishop of North Carolina, who has seceded to the Catholic church, was the twenty-fifth Bishop, in the order of appointment, of the Episcopal church of the United States. He is a native of Vermont, and was originally settled, as a minister, over a Congregationalist Society, in the county of St. Lawrence, N. Y. The effect of forming certain acquaintanceships and intimacies, at that time, it is said, was to direct his attention to the Episcopal church, which abandoning his Congressional flock, he entered, and came to New York city, where he married a daughter of the venerable Bishop Hobart, and was settled as Rector of St. Luke's Church, in Hudson street. On Thursday, September 22d, 1831, he was consecrated Bishop of North Carolina, in Trinity Church, Philadelphia. At the time of his defection from the Protestant faith, he had been Bishop twenty-one years, and was the third living, in the order of consecration. His wife, who accompanied him on his visit to Rome, is said to have strongly opposed his joining the Catholic church, but now begins to defend him from the attacks of several Protestant ministers, who also accompanied him to Rome. *Balt. American Rail Road Iron. The New York Banker's Circular learns from a well authenticated statement that American Rail Road Iron, manufactured from American pig, is in quality superior, by almost 3 to 1, to the imported article. The following is the test furnished by the engineers of the Reeding Rail Road—a route better calculated than any other in the United States, to try the quality of iron rails:

Annual wear of English iron,	4 1-10 per cent.
Annual wear of American iron,	1 4-10 "
Difference in favor of American,	2 7-10

On lines principally for the convenience of passengers, the wear is not so great, consequently the difference in favor of American iron is less; but the average disparity is about 2 to 1 in the wear, being the difference in cost for repairs. The Lowmoor iron, which stands highest in the estimation of our railroad managers, is far inferior in tenacity in ordinary American iron in use.

The Ladies and the Maine Law. There was a new and certainly novel phase in legislation at Albany, N. Y., on Friday. The House gave permission to a committee of females from the Women's State Temperance Convention, to present, in person, a petition with some 28,000 names upon it, asking for the Maine or some other similar law. There were four composing the committee, who were conducted into the centre aisle of the House, by Gen. Burroughs, one of whom, a Miss Clark, of Le Roy, stepped forward, and delivered a very appropriate and neat address. All the modesty and sensitiveness which usually characterizes the advent of ladies into public assemblies, to "be observed of all observers," had, it is said, fled from the woman speaker; and no blush of temerity was stamped upon her cheeks during the delivery of her address.

The London Sun, of the 4th instant, contains the following:

"Sir John Franklin. A correspondent of The Cork Constitution, states that, during the gale of Monday last, a bottle was washed on shore here, containing a letter purporting to be written by Sir John Franklin. It is dated Cape Bathurst, 12th of January, 1850, and represents Sir John and his companions to be in considerable want of provisions, having nearly consumed a seal that they had caught. It also states that ten of the seamen had died during the previous year, and that a bottle containing a letter was sent adrift in 1849. The letter is written on a sheet of foolscap, writing rather indifferent, and signed J. Franklin."

Iron in Tennessee. The Nashville Whig gives a tabular statement of the capital and product of the iron interest on the Cumberland river, together with the number of hands employed, and the amount of pork and corn consumed per annum at the twenty-one furnaces, nine forges, and two rolling mills therein enumerated. The following is the recapitulation: 19 furnaces, 29,200 tons metal; 9 forges, 10,600 tons blooms; 2 rolling mills; 4,000 tons of iron. Total, 44,600 tons; 1,400 kettles. Capital, $1,216,000. They employ 1,395 men, and 1,810 negros.

A lot of seventy-five bales of cotton, raised by Thomas Wray, Esq., of Greene County, Ga., was sold at Augusta on Tuesday at 11½ cents. It was of very superior quality. A lot of thirty bales of Nankin Cotton from Mr. Baker's, of Clarke County, was also sold recently at Augusta at 16 cents.

Tetanus, or lockjaw, is said to be successfully treated with quinine. The New Orleans Medical and Surgical Journal gives, at some length, the treatment in a recent case, in which the cure is attributed altogether to quinine.

THIRTY-SECOND CONGRESS.—2nd Session.

Thursday, January 29, 1853.

SENATE.

Mr. Seward presented several memorials, praying grants of land to aid in the construction of a ship canal around the Falls of Niagara.

Also, petitions in favor of the establishment of a line of steamers between Brooklyn and Germany.

Mr. Cass' resolution directing an enquiry by the committee of Foreign Relations as to the necessity for any action relative to the Bulwer and Clayton explanation of the treaty of 1850, was taken up.

Mr. Mangum opposed the resolution. He was in favor of postponing it till after the 4th of March next, in order that Mr. Clayton might be here to defend himself. He thought no practical object was intended, but merely a personal matter, and Mr. Clayton ought to be heard. He was opposed to this warlike debate, when no man would dare to avow his wilingness to go to war.

Mr. Cass said he was not to be deterred from any investigation concerning the honor of his country, by the declaration that he would not go to war The preservation of our rights in small matters was the surest guaranty of peace. Slavish submission to wrong would inevitably result in war.

Mr. Bell at great length urged the postponement of the subject until Mr. Clayton reached here. If it was intended to have a measure reported to repeal the treaty, he would desire time to debate it. He thought there had been sufficient debate on the subject, and much more than necessary said to arouse the people of the United States and to frighten the European powers. He thought the construction of twenty war steamers and the erection of necessary fortifications much better to preserve peace than paper resolves.

Mr. Mason thought it a proper inquiry to ascertain whether the treaty ratified by the Senate had been impaired or altered by the addenda placed there by Messrs. Bulwer and Clayton. He did not consider war was necessary. He did not at any time say that the colonization of the Bay of Island was an infraction of the treaty; but he did say, and repeated it now, that whether that colony was or was not an infraction of that treaty, that colony would have to be discontinued.

Mr. Borland followed, supporting the resolution, and Messrs. Hale and Underwood opposed it.

Mr. Gwin moved to lay the resolution on the table; lost—ayes 9, noes 31.

Mr. Mangum moved to postpone it till after the 4th of March next; lost—ayes 17, noes 29.

The resolution was adopted.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the Pacific rail road bill was taken up and further debated, and the Senate adjourned.

House of Representatives. Mr. Stanly, of N. C., from the committee of ways and means, reported a bill to pay to different States public moneys due under the act of 1836, which was read a first and second time last session, and referred to the committee.

Mr. Orr of S. C., moved to lay the bill on the table, and the yeas and nays having been ordered, the motion was carried—yeas 105, nays 60.

Mr. Stanly endeavored to have his motion, to print the bill, put from the chair, but the Speaker decided that the motion went with the bill, against which decision Mr. Stanly appealed, but it was sustained by the House.

The House then went into a committee of the whole on the state of the Union, and again took up the amendments of the deficiency bill, a number of which were disposed of.

The last of these was a resolution by Mr. Stanly, that in future books shall not be supplied to members for the Congress of which they were not members. The value of thsee books he said amounted to nine hundred dollars, which are often sold by members. In some instances a former member of Congress dies, and his executors consider the books as assets: and there being no purchaser for them in the localities, they are sent to agents at Washington, who sell them there, and they are again issued for the use of members. The amendment was adopted.

The committee then rose, and the bill with amendments were reported, and having been agreed to, the bill was read a third time and passed.

The House then adjourned.

The Mexican News Confirmed—Arrival of the Steamer Empire City—Later from Havana, &c.

New Orleans, Jan. 25. The news from Mexico, regarding the revolution, the resignation of President Arista and the temporary government is fully confirmed. The condition of the country was deplorable. There were doubts whether the temporary government, which Senor Cevalles was endeavoring to establish, would succeed. Everything appeared to be pretty much at loose ends.

The steamer Empire City has arrived here, with later advices from Havana. Mr. King, Vice President elet, had not arrived there when the Empire City left.

The small pox had materially subsided. There were, however, frequent cases occurring.

Affairs on the Island were quiet. Martin Galliano, the Secretary of the Captain General, has been removed, and his successor is expected to arrive by the next steamer from Spain.

Business is without any special movement or change in prices from last accounts.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

New Orleans, Jan. 25. Late advices from Mexico state that President Cevalles had named the following Ministry:—Gen. Blanco, Secretary of War; Gen. Iturbide, Secretary of the Treasury; Guerrera, of Foreign Affairs, and Yantez, of Justice. Their administration would probably be of short duration.

Bold Resistance to the Laws.

Philadelphia, Jan. 26. The officers in charge of Richard Neal, a free negro man, charged with abducting slaves from Anne Arundel county, Md., who left the city yesterday in a private vehicle, were overtaken at Chester last night by Neal's friends with a writ of habeas corpus. A crowd of blacks prevented the officers from taking him in the cars, and it was found necessary to send another party of officers in the morning train to bring the prisoner back.

When the cars passed through Chester this morning a large crowd of blacks were assembled, and difficulty was anticipated if the officers attempted to put Neal in the cars.

A dispatch from Wilmington this morning, stating that Neal passed through there last night in charge of officers Hampton and Wise, of Maryland, is probably incorrect.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

Philadelphia, Jan. 26. Neal, the negro charged with abducting slaves was brought to this city today on a habeas corpus issued by the Supreme Court, and will have a hearing to-morrow morning.

Later from California.

New York, Jan. 28. The steamer Star of the West arrived here to-day from Aspinwall, with San Francisco dates to Jan. 1st. She brings 400 passengers. The steamers Oregon and Northernor left San Francisco with $2,000,000 in gold.

Great rains and snows prevailed throughout California during the last two weeks of December. The rivers were overflowed, a large number of Ranchos swept away, a number of cattle drowned, and many lives lost.

In the mountainous and mining districts, the inhabitants were starving. At last accounts the storm had abated, and provisions were being sent forward to the destitute places.

A severe earthquake had been felt at San Diego on the 28th December.

Col. Jack Hayes, the Texan ranger, was murdered at San Francisco by a man named Jones. The murderer had been arrested and lynched.

Advices from the Sandwich Islands state that the French are rapidly extending their power over the Society Islands.

New York Legislature.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 28. The Legislature of N. York has appointed Wednesday next for the election of a United States Senator.

The debate upon the liquor law has resulted in the adoption of an order referring the law to a special committee of one from each county to report upon the expediency of amending, without infringing upon the fundamental principles of the act.

Election of Senator, &c.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 28. The New Jersey Legislature has re-elected Hon. Wm. Wright, U. S. Senator, for six years from the 4th of March next. Mr. Wright was formerly a whig, but came out for Pierce in the recent campaign.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

To the Chairmen of the Board of County Superintendents of Common Schools in North Carolina:

Gentlemen: It is important, at the beginning of a new year, that you and the other officers of the system of Common Schools, should know what changes have been made in your duties by the acts of the last Legislature.

As the law requires of me, I have prepared a new pamphlet edition of all the School Laws in force, with explanations and forms, and this edition has this day been approved by the President and Directors of the Literary Fund, and will be printed as rapidly as possible. A large number of copies will be struck off and circulated; and in the mean time, as soon as the requisite number can be printed, a copy will be sent to each of you by mail. The balance of the edition due to each county will be sent to you, with directions for their distribution, by the persons who carry out the Acts of Assembly, &c.

Of the new laws passed at the recent session of the General Assembly, it is not absolutely essential for you to know immediately any part except that in relation to Committees of Examination. It is made the duty of the Board of County Superintendents to appoint a committee to examine those who wish to teach Common Schools in each county in the State; this committee is to consist of not more than five, of whom the Chairman of the Board of County Superintendents is to be one—is to meet at least three times a year, and to give, at the Court House door, notice of the times and places of meeting. Certificates issued by them are good for one year only, and in no other county than the one in which they are issued; and you are authorized to refuse to pay any teacher who does not exhibit a proper certificate. Of course you will not enforce this law, until the substance of it is known to Committee men; and in your annual reports—(which are to be made to me instead of the Governor and Literary Board)—you are to designate the number of licenses issued during the year to male and the number to female teachers.

I take this occasion to express the hope that a new impulse will be given to the cause of popular education in North Carolina; and to say to you that I shall, if spared, visit all the Counties of the State, to examine the operations of our system, to consult with you and second your efforts, and to endeavor to enlist the active sympathies of the public in behalf of this great cause. In the mean time, I would be pleased to receive suggestions from you, and may be addressed at Greensborough or Raleigh; and permit me to assure you that while I would be pleased to correspond with you, your knowledge of local matters, your observation and experience may be of material service to me, while I am ready to offer any assistance in the way of advice and information in my power.

Hoping that we shall soon become better acquainted and be able to strengthen the hands of each other, I am

With much respect, your obed't serv't,

C. H. WILEY,

General Superintendent of Common Schools.

Raleigh, January 15th, 1853.

P. S. Blank Certificates for teachers will, in due time, be issued; and it is recommended that those issued by me be used exclusively, as this will produce uniformity.

The Savings Banks of Massachusetts. In 1840, the number of depositors in the Savings Banks of Massachusetts amounted to 37,470, and the amount deposited, to $5,819,553. From that time the increase has been steady until 1852, when the number of depositors amounted to 97,355, and the amount deposited, to $18,401,307. In 1840, the number of depositors was one in twenty of the whole population, at $155 average ach. In 1850, the depositors were one in twelve, at $179 each; or the savings were, in 1840, $8 50 average of the whole population, and in 1850, $15 average. The small savings had nearly doubled themselves. In 1852, the depositors are one in eleven of the whole population, and the deposits average $18 per head of the whole population—an increase of $3 per head in two years. The highest average and most numerous depositors, in proportion to the population, are in locations where fishing and other pursuits abound.

DIED,

At the residence of her husband, Wm. G. Thompson, Esq., in the county of Hyde, on Saturday the 15th inst., Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson. This amiable and much beloved lady had been but recently married, when death, cruel and remorseless death, tore her from the bosom of her deeply bereaved husband and consigned her to the gloom and darkness of the grave. Thus are the beautiful, the gifted, the affectionate and lovely called from the peaceful and happy circles of domestic blessedness to the mysterious regions of eternity. Where the rose blossomed but yesterday, the cypress now waves its branches of sorrow, and the tear—the burning and the blighting tear—now marks with the stream of its agonies the cheeks of those who have seldom wept over such calamities—over such misfortunes. The lamented lady has doubtless gone to that better land where she will meet those—the loved and the lost—who like herself were called in a moment, an unexpected moment, from the "wilderness of this world," to the "garden of God."

At his old residence, in Sampson County, N. C., on the morning of the 17th January, 1853, the venerable and worthy Lemuel Chesnutt, aged 74 years; leaving one son and five daughters. He died without an enemy. Peace to his remains! [Com.

For the Standard.

TO MISS L. V. H., OF RALEIGH.

I will not say what it hath cost,
This bosom's throbbing pulse to still;
To calm the surge of passion, crossed,
And fix the subject bring to will:
It were all vain in me to tell—
As thou to hear—the agony
Of the fierce struggle, ere the spell
Were broken, and the captive free.

I will not grieve thy gentle heart,
To tell thee of the burning tears
The "strong man" e'en will shed to part
With all the cherished hopes of years;
How hard the task, ah! none may deem,
Its bitterness who hath not proved—
Passion to merge in cold esteem,
And but admire where once we LOVED!

But it is done!—and thou art now
A being worshipped from afar,
To whom I breathe devotion's vow,
As unto some fair, distant star,
Whose radiance, streaming from the sky,
In every heart enchantment wakes—
Yet holding on its pathway high,
Gives back no love for all it takes!

Thou art the fair embodiment
To me, of holy Truth and Love;
A seraph blest I deem thee, sent
To lure me up to worlds above;
My better Angel, there art thou;
And still, in holiest thought, to thee
I breathe devotion's purest vow,
At the lone shrine of Memory!

$20 REWARD!

RANAWAY, on Monday, the 24th instant, my boy RITE. Said boy is about five feet five or six inches high, twenty-eight or thirty years old, black, speaks quick when spoken to, good countenance, limps, but I am not positive in which limb, but upon a close examination the muscles of the lame hip will be found a little less; no other marks recollected. He is probably endeavoring to make his way to the State of Mississippi, as Col. T. T. Grice has lately moved, carrying his wife to that country; he sent his clothes by her, and left without any known cause.

The above reward will be given for his confinement in any jail out of the State, so that I get him, or ten dollars if arrested in the State and confined in some jail near. ELIAS BARNES.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE,

In the thriving Town of Goldsboro', N. C.,

On Tuesday, Februry 22, 1853.

BEING desirous of increasing my Manufacturing facilities, and, in order to realize means for that purpose, I will offer at Public Sale, on Tuesday of February Court, in the Town of Goldsboro', my DWELLING and STORE-HOUSE, so favorably known as the VARIETY STORE. The locality and area of the premises, being 160 feet front upon West-Centre and 200 feet upon Chesnut-Street, makes it the most desirable situation in Town. For a business locality it has no rival, being within one block of two of the best Hotels in the Union. Goods can be discharged from the Wilmington Railroad within 70 feet of the Store door. The North Carolina Railroad will terminate but a short distance from the premises, and also the Atlantic Railroad, which is now in contemplation, will have its terminus very near them.

This location is equally desireable for a private residence, being beautifully shaded with twelve or more oak trees, and upon the lot there is a most excellent well of water.

In the rear of the above-mentioned premises is an unimproved Lot, fronting upon Chestnut-Street 204 feet, and 160 feet upon Greenwich-Street, which will be sold at the same time. Possession will be given immediately both of the dwelling and the store-house.

In consideration of the rapid growth of Goldsboro', and its many railroads and other advantages it has over all other interior towns in the State, the above is the surest chance ever yet offered to capitalists for a safe and judicious investment.

Terms made known on the day of sale.

We feel a desire to accommodate all who may favor us with their patronage. All work made and sent to order, and if we do not comply with the order we do not ask the work to be taken, nor will we think hard of those ordering for not taking if the order is not complied with, for we flatter ourselves with the belief that we can give satisfaction. All we ask is a trial. We have on hand a large and well selected stock of materials, and we have also the best set of hands that can be brought to this country; and we shall spare neither time nor expense in accommodating our friends.

NOVELTY WORKS,

WEST ST., RALEIGH, NORTH-CAROLINA,

SILAS BURNS, PROPRIETOR,

BUILDER OF

Steam Engines & General Machinist.

THE above establishment has been in successful operation about one year, and has turned out some of the best STEAM ENGINES and SAW MILLS that have ever operated in this or any other State.

Orders are solicited for Steam Engines and Saw Mills, Mill Gearing and Machinery of every discription to be completed during the Summer and Fall. The improved condition of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road will enable me to fill with dispatch and punctuality all orders after the 1st of July.

The following certificate will show the character of the work executed at the above Works:

Aurry, Cumberland, May 15, 1852.

Mr. Silas Burns,

Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The Engine, as to finish and strength, performance and durability, is inferior to none in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The Mills run with a smoothness and speed truly astonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot in 3¾ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes two many hands to haul up logs and carry away lumber. Yours, &c.,
JONES & BARBEE.

"Eagle Hotel," Chapel Hill, for Sale

THE Proprietress of this well known and profitable establishment, having realized a sufficient income to warrant her in resuming the quiet of a private life, of fe o the public generally the opportunity of bidding fo s advantages.

The citizens of the State are so well acquainted with the advantages of its position, that but few remarks are necessary to complete their information.

The Hotel itself possesses all the requirments of room and comfort, which its purchasers can desire. It has capacity for the accommodation of one hundred and fifty boarders, and the recent and rapid growth of the University, adjacent, makes it an easy matterto possess such or even a greater number of students.

In addition to this, the frequent travel through Chapel Hill gives the Hotel, (being the only one in the place) a transient custom equal to any in the State.

The lots and stables adjoining are extensive and commodious, and the country-market supplies abundantly and on profitable terms much of its provisions.

The terms of sale require one third of the price to be paid on taking possession. A note, with safe security and time of payment suited to the convenience of the purchaser, are the reasonable demands for the remainder.

If further information be desired concerning the inducements to purchase, the President of the University or any other resident of the village, will furnish it.

Possession can be obtained at any time, after the 1st of May. Apply to ANNE S. HILLIARD.

Stop the Rascal!

ON the 29th instant, a man, calling himself differently John Wagoner, and John Foster—a small man, not more, probably, than 5 feet 5 inches high, rather dark complected, having a scar over one of his eyes, and small black whiskers, and professing to hail from Raleigh—came to my residence, in Granville, in a state of utter destitution and applied for work on the plantation. I gave him employment and supplied his necessities—but, on the night of Thursday, the 30th, he robbed me of a fine Gold Watch and Chain and absconded.

I will give a liberal reward for the recovery of the watch and the apprehension of the scoundrel.

The fact, that merchants can supply their wants in their home markets, and thus save the trouble and expense of a northern trip, being fully established, the subscribers, in anticipation of a large demand for their popular Ready Made Clothing, have manufactured an unusually large stock, which, they may safely say, has never been surpassed, if it has been equalled, in the southern market.

Quinton Utley's Tooth-Ache Drops.

FOR THE CURE OF THE TOOTHACHE.

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the 19th Century!

FROM the numerous applications I have had for the above preparation, for the last few months, the uniform success which has attended its use, its salutary effects, its power to give immediate relief in the severest cases of Toothache, I have been induced to offer it to those who may be afflicted; with the utmost confidence in its virtue, and the full belief that it will subdue and give entire relief to the severest toothache without the slightest injury to the tooth. I have got (and can get,) numerous testimonials of its efficacy—some from distinguished gentlemen, and all from as reliable persons as are in the State, a publication of which I deem unnecessary at this time, as one of these Drops when tried in an aching tooth will be worth more to the manufacturer and the patient, than all the certificates from great n er that could be procured.

The preparation is known only to myself. Every phial is carefully put up by my own hands in the City of Raleigh and labelled with directions for use, and may be found at IRA BECKWITH'S Store, on Fayetteville St. a few doors North of the Yarbrough House, and opposite Lawrence's Hotel, where it will be constantly kept for sale either by the wholesale or retail. Also for sale by the retail at Jone's Drug Store, Sycamore street, Petersburg, Va., and at Andrew Bett's Store, Wake County, N. C. Retail price 50 cts. per Bottle—liberal deduction made when taken by the quantity.

To all who may have the toothache—try it, and then it will need no puffing.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to by Mr. Beckwith or myself.
